Summary

I am an aspiring Sofware Engineer/ Full Stack Web Developer who is very interested, determined, and passionate about learning web development. I am a self-starter, highly trainable, and a quick learner individual. As a career-shifter, I enjoy coding and it keeps me motivated and challenged whenever I finish a functional project.
I am looking for a company that gives chances for those entry-level programmers like me. In return, I will be able to practice, contribute, develop and impart my newly acquired learnings and skills for the benefit of your company.
